BELAMR – Bowling for Breakfast this past weekend proved to be another successful fundraiser for the Belmar Elementary School graduating class.

The eighth-grade parents hosted the event at Sea Girt Lanes on Sunday, May 5, for the entire student body to raise money for the eighth grade end-of-the-year dance.

The event raised $995 for the dance, which included a donation from Jason Soares for $250. Mr. Soares works for 3 Brothers from Italy Pizza, here, and is opening up a new business, Stay Gold Cafe and Lounge, on Eighth Avenue and Main Street.

“I was very ecstatic and surprised to see a great turnout of students coming early to bowl on a Sunday morning,” said Patty Glab, Belmar Elementary pre-kindergarten teacher who has an eighth-grader, Jade Glab, in the school. “I feel very confident that the amount raised will further fund any expenses for the eighth-grade dance.”

Parents of eighth-graders donated breakfast and beverages and Sea Girt Lanes donated the venue for the event.

Don Corcione, manager at Sea Girt Lanes, was happy to offer any assistance with the fundraiser, Ms. Glab said.

He allowed the eighth-graders to stand on the special floating stage to get their picture taken, she said. The stage is located above the centered lanes and where music bands including Knobs, License to Chill, Guys Smiling and Timepiece perform on Saturday nights.

The dance will take place on June 21 at Shark River Island Yacht Club in Neptune.
