Education

Syracuse University • 2008- 2011

Diploma: Bachelors of Arts (B.A.)

Major: Newspaper Journalism & Women and Gender Studies

Minor: Political Science

GPA: 3.3 out of 4.0; GPA for major (newspaper): 3.367 out of 4.0

Dean's list: Spring & Fall 2010, Spring & Fall 2011

Experience

Star News Group (Reporter) • April 2012- present

While working at The Coast Star, one of Star News Group's newspapers, I covered two towns— Belmar and Lake Como. Since working here, I have written over 800 articles, covering everything from council and board of education meetings to New Jersey Gov. Chris Christie visiting to the Hurricane Sandy recovery effort. I also take pictures and edit content each week.

Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press (Intern) • Spring 2012

While interning at the RFCP—a nonprofit organization devoted to protecting the First Amendment right of journalists—I wrote blog posts and articles for the quarterly magazine, The News Media & the Law.

Not For Sale (Intern) • Spring 2011-Fall 2011

The Not For Sale Campaign is dedicated to eradicating human trafficking. While interning, I conducted research on cases of human trafficking, which I put up on slaverymap.com.

The Post-Standard (Intern) • Fall 2011

While interning at the daily newspaper in Syracuse, N.Y., I worked at the weekend desk covering various events, like troops returning home, community fairs and tax-delinquent houses.

Dash Media PR (Intern) • Summer 2011

While interning at Dash Media PR, located in New York City, I made phone calls to media outlets for events, wrote press releases for various clients, worked at various events, including one at the Metropolitan Museum for Art, and conducted research and gave ideas for a potential client.

College experience:

The Daily Orange, newspaper (Reporter) • 2008- 2011

The Newshouse, online publication (Publisher & Editor) • Spring 2011

The Stand, monthly newspaper (Editor) • Spring 2011

The Student Voice, bi-weekly magazine (Reporter) • 2009- 2010

The Syracuse New Times, news, magazine (Intern) • 2010
